

Construction Industry Safety Induction 'White Card'

Want to make your mark on the Construction Industry?

Who for? New entrants to the construction workforce. It is a mandatory course for anyone wishing to work in the Construction Industry in Australia.

How? Five hour face to face course with our industry experienced and qualified trainers. Students have immediate access to the trainers and 1 to 1 language and literacy support is also available.

What is taught? Job-Ready-Skills

- Workplace health and safety
- Emergency procedures
- Emergency equipment
- Hazard reporting
- Workplace plans
- Risk management
- Employee obligations
- Work method statements
- Duty of care
- Special hazards using tools
- Material safety data sheets
- Employee and employer obligations
- Workplace communication

$45

Outcome? The skill and knowledge to begin working safely in the Construction Industry. The ability to apply for jobs in Building and Construction

Employment pathways? Jobs in the construction industry, apprentice tradespersons, labourers, concreters, plasterers, carpenters, machine operators, demolition workers, painters, plumbers, insulation installers and more...

Who is doing it? Women and men of all ages looking for that change of career, or re-entering the workforce. School leavers, Jobseekers wanting to increase their employment opportunities and people doing home building projects.

Booking? Courses are held weekly. Call 1300 556 387 for availability and bookings. Card issued same day.

1300 556 387

www.onestopgroup.com.au